Assistant Manager

kids footlocker - Indianapolis, IN December 2021 to January 2022

It was a short transfer because footlocker had no assistant manager positions open to train me as a manager in. I transferred back to get trained by the manager who is still training me to be an even better assistant manager. Working as a kids footlocker assistant manager was hard work. I had to learn a lot quickly as well as learn to multitask in difficult situations. I had to learn to run the store by myself when nobody else was around to help me. That taught me how to figure out and solve problems on my own while under pressure.
