

Daniel
Tyler

5780 E 19th St
Indianapolis, IN 46218
danieltyler99@gmail.com
(219) 380-8450

I am a dedicated, caring and hard-working young professional with experience in completing responsibilities efficiently in a team environment and independently

Key Skills

- Operational skills
- Problem Solving
- Versed Communicator
- Proficient in Microsoft Office
- Physically Capable
- Easily Trained

Professional Experience

CNC Machinist

Helios Technologies | June 2022 - December 2023

- Operated and maintained CNC machines to perform machining tasks according to blueprints and specifications
- Conducted quality checks on machined parts using precision measuring tools such as micrometers, calipers, and air gauges
- Worked with Mazak Machines making custom and off-the-shelf aluminum manifolds

Security Professional

Allied Universal | January 2022 - May 2022

- Conducted regular patrols of the premises to ensure security and safety of the property
- Monitored and controlled access points, checking identification and verifying visitors
- Monitored surveillance cameras and responded to any suspicious activity

Paint Associate

Lowes | June 2021 - December 2021

- Maintained a clean and well-organized workspace for customers
- Used knowledge of different paint types and application techniques to make recommendations to customers
- Operated tinting machines and other paint equipment in a safe and efficient manner

Education

Business Management

Purdue Fort Wayne, Indiana August 2019 - December 2020

- Competed Division I Track and Field freshman year, utilizing time management skills to attend school full time and compete at the highest level
- Completed four semesters with classes focused on accounting, economics, and business

Business Management

Indiana University South Bend, Indiana January 2021 - May 2021

- Further continued my undergrad studies